LOCATION

Pinehaven Farms is a little more than 30 miles north of St. Paul off Interstate Hwy. 35. While that's a bit of a trek for some, the stuck-in-the-boonies atmosphere really adds to the show. Open 7 p.m. daily.

PRICE/LENGTH

$14.50. It's a little pricey, but it features a haunted hayride with an optional haunted house at the end. It took us about 45 minutes to go through the whole thing, which made it appealing.

SCARE FACTOR

Pretty darned frightening. The costumes and scenery were fantastic. The atmosphere of the dark forest really made the hayride work. The haunted house was too short and the weaker of the two, but after the long hayride it was fine.

GENERAL COMMENTS

This is something you could make a night of. They offer warm concessions and other features, such as a bonfire. If you're worried about line length, you can call ahead and make reservations, although the lines were short on our visit.

OVERALL

A fun way to enjoy the crisp fall weather and get a good scare. While it's held on a "family" farm, we were pleasantly surprised that it was still very frightening and not tamed down.
